1. Attendance Initiative – DSP 1.3.5 - Create a team to review and improve our current practices related to student attendance and achievement. Identify who needs to be engaged and target from there.

The attendance team continues to meet to work on strategies and interventions to improve NRWHS attendance and assist families and students that struggle with chronic absenteeism. 15 new students were referred and will participate in this Tier 2 intervention called the How to Adult Class for the second semester. It is a 12 week program. The How to Adult group is facilitated by Mental Health Therapists from Catholic Charities/the Thriving Families Program. The students that participated worked on the following skills:

- How to regulate emotions
- Anger-management
- Healthy relationships
- Communication skills

2. MTSS - (DSP 1.1) Establish & implement district-wide Multi-tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) for academics & behavior.

The Cougar Pride Team recognized the following students as Tri Scholar Award winners: Roy Benjamin, AnnaMae Humbert, Maggie Lapp, Madeline Tompkins, Jordan Anderson, Sierra Mourey, Kelsey Roberts, Phillip Ufholz, Mason VanFleet, Kalen Bjerga, Zach Crum, Taylor La-Valley, Bradon Madison, Tyler Pettit, Ben Snyder, Cheyenne Boone, Cole Durham, Brianna Moon, Pedro Pascual and Tess Roberts. These students are passing all of their classes, have missed no more than a ½ day from school and have zero discipline referrals for Quarter 2.

Quarter 2 Super Scholars are students who are passing all of their classes, have zero discipline referrals and have not missed a single minute of school for the year to date! This is quite the accomplishment! NRWHS has 10 Super Scholar Students. These students are Nick Barnes, Tim Barnes, Kennedy Jones, Sophie Roberts, Hannah Cook, Drew Fowler, Shealyn Shattuck, Triniti Boykin, Mariah Craine and Jessica Gunkler!
