WTCC National Technical Honor Society

On May 13th, the Wayne Technical and Career Center (WTCC) inducted 43 students into the National Technical Honor Society. High school seniors, Jacob Molisani of Williamson High School and Taylor Sackett of Gananda High School gave speeches reflecting on their experiences at the Wayne Technical and Career Center.

The purpose of the National Technical Honor Society is to promote service, leadership, honesty, career development and skilled workmanship. To qualify for a nomination a student must maintain a 90% average and a 95% attendance rate. In addition, the candidate's home school principal must support the nomination.
