A. RESULTS OF ANNUAL SCHOOL ELECTION • MAY 19, 2009

Mr. Havens extended congratulations to the Board of Education on successful passage of the proposed school budget and school bus purchases and to school board candidates on their re-election.

He noted that the margin of approval was 82% on the proposed budget and 78% on the proposed bus purchases. This marked the first time in the past ten (10) years that the margin of approval on the proposed budget surpassed the margin of approval for the bus purchase proposition. The school board's goal for the margin of approval for the budget was 80% or more.

Mrs. Lyke extended thanks to the booster club for hosting the chicken barbeque and to the teachers' association for sponsoring the food drive to benefit food pantries in Walworth and Ontario. Mr. Havens thanked the many persons who assisted in setting a positive atmosphere for the annual school election.
