2. PUBLIC ACCESS TO THE BOARD:  Mr. Peter Treasure addressed the Board regarding the proposed staff reduction in the science area. He spoke in support of his colleague, Brienne Tuck Stratton. He recalled the science reduction that occurred a few years ago and worries that the proposed cut will be felt by Middle School students.

BENJAMIN GERSTNER:  High School student Benjamin Gerstner mentioned that he feels very fortunate to have taken the Living Environment class from Mrs. Stratton. Because this class is available at the Middle School level, advancement into more college level classes during High School is possible. He mentioned that she helps to prepare Middle School students for High School level work and that she started a Science Club to get girls involved in the sciences.
CLAUDIA WHEELER: Claudia Wheeler spoke on behalf of a number of Middle School students who were present, showing support of Mrs. Stratton. She mentioned that they have confidence to take the Regents because of Mrs. Stratton, and that all students should have the opportunity to have her as a teacher.

NOAH BARNES: Middle School student Noah Barns mentioned that he feels fortunate to have Mrs. Stratton as a teacher for Living Environment. He spoke of her unique teaching style and commended her on always being available when students need help. He commented that she is a loved teacher and basketball coach.

3a. SkillsUSA REGIONAL COMPETITION RECOGNITION: Board Members and Mr. Walker were pleased to welcome Mr. Don Howard, Metal Trades Instructor at Wayne Technical and Career Center. Mr. Howard described the SkillsUSA Regional competition that took place on March 8, 2011 at Alfred State College. Two of his students from NR-W, Cody Middleton and Jordan Learo, placed 3rd in Automated Manufacturing Technology. The Board congratulated them and wished them well as they continue with competition at the State Level.

3b. BOYS’ AND GIRLS’ STATE RECOGNITION: Mr. Walker attended an American Legion event which honored students who attended Boys’ and Girls’ State last June. The Board and Mr. Walker congratulated Emily Burm, Carson Doyle, Brendan Jablonski, Matt McDorman, Alex Ciopyk, and Trevor Ivanov for their selection to and participation in the outstanding program.
