2. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION
- Paul Statskey reported on the wonderful success of the Geography Bee that was recently held at the Middle School. It was a combined effort between the school district, PTSA, and the Wolcott Bicentennial Committee. Approximately 90 students successfully passed the pre-test and were invited to join in the bee. 31 participants ventured into the event. The champion of the Geography Bee was Middle School student Michael Chapin, who as the grand prize winner, took home an electric guitar. Mr. Statskey thanked Middle School Principal John Boogaard, the PTSA, and all those involved in this exciting event.

The PTSA is pleased to see increased parental involvement in many events that have happened recently in our district.

3a. PRESENTATIONS

Three Senior class officers and class advisors Mike Grasso and Michelle Bartholomew presented the Board with a handout showing the proposed gift that the Class of 2007 would like to present to our school district. The class gift, a weather resistant outdoor sign, was designed by class members and will be placed in the school yard in front of the Music wing. All expenses will be paid for by the Senior Class, and upkeep will be the school district's responsibility. There is the possibility of landscaping, and in future years if wanted, a scrolling marquee could be added. Underclassmen could provide upkeep and additions to the sign as community service projects. There was discussion about running electricity now - it would be easier than later. A spot light could be used now. Mr. Grasso and Mrs. Bartholomew mentioned how proud they are of the Senior Class and their accomplishments throughout their years in High School.

4a. ADMINISTRATIVE REPORTS

No one had questions about the reports provided to the Board by Administrators.
