

Romulus Elementary Gets Involved !

Students in grades Prek-6 participated in Seneca County Volunteer Week by collecting for others. Students collected nonperishable food items that were donated to area food pantries. A total of one hundred and fifty eight items were collected. Coats and Jackets were collected to be distributed to needy families with over one hundred and forty items donated to South County families.