*PAPER – THE LONG TERM IMPACTS OF THE NEW DEAL

Discuss the long term, continuing impact of the New Deal today. Consider the controversies in the 1980s and after over the legacy of “big government” programs started by the New Deal.

[In completing this assignment you will need to identify specific information about the New Deal. Your discussion will need to include the goals and overall impacts of the program on the US in the short and long-term. You will need to include specific acts and actions of Roosevelt and the New Deal and the impact of those on the future development of US domestic policies. A large part of your paper will be your understanding of what occurred in the 1980s with the advent of Reagonomics and a return to policies similar to those of the 1920s.]
