

SPECIAL SERVICE PROVIDERS IN POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION

This list was compiled to help students with special needs know who to contact for information about support services available to students with disabilities at each of these postsecondary programs.

SCHOOL	NAME OF CONTACT	PHONE #	A NOTEWORTHY ASPECT
Bryant & Stratton (82 St. Paul St.)	Mary Tipton Student Advisor	716-325-6010 Ext. 244	Fully accessible and will attempt to make whatever modifications necessary to ensure the success of our students.
Colgate Rochester Divinity School	Michel George Assoc. VP for Admin. & Facilities	716-271-1320	Improvement of physical accessibility
Finger Lakes CC	Norah Nolan-Cramer Coordinator, Services for Students with a Disability	716-394-3500 Ext. 441	Disability services for students enrolled in FLCC
Genesee CC	Dr. Ann Marie Malachowski, Director. Learning Center	716-343-0055 Ext. 353	Full time Learning Specialist involved in enhancing classroom success for students with LD
Keuka College	Cynthia White LD Tutor	315-536-5336	Opportunity for help is available for the student who is motivated
MCC	Taine Vinci Senior Advisory Counseling Center	716-292-2030	Offers coordinated services between admissions, counseling and student support services
Nazareth College	Sandra Czudak Contact for LD students Joan Anderson Contact for students with other handicaps	716-586-2525 Ext. 415 Ext. 700	Assistance and accommodations planned individually with students. Current listing of research on college students with disabilities. Large library on special education available to the community
RIT/LDC	Jacqueline Lynch Czamanski, Chair, Alternative Learning Department	716-475-2215	Program focuses on ability, NOT disability. Offers multi-level program for students to self select intervention intensity appropriate to their needs (3 levels, general, weekly and daily monitoring)
RIT	Marie Guardino Special Services Department	716-475-2833	At the office of Special Services/RIT we want to support your academic success. Offering a variety of academic and personal support as well as a variety of accessible accommodations, one of our staff will help you to tailor a package of service to meet your specific needs.
Roberts Wesleyan	Carol K. Ernsthause Director, Learning Center	716-594-6270	Assistance and accommodations planned individually with students

St. John Fisher	Chris Hogan Disabled Student Services Coordinator	716-385-8034	Services are based on individual assessment. The Disabled Student Advisor works cooperatively with student to determine appropriate services and what arrangements need to be made.
U of R	Vicki Roth, Director, Learning Assistance Services	716-275-9049	A disability support program well integrated within an academic assistance program for all students.
SUNY-Brockport	Karen Phelps, Coordinator, Disabled Student Services	716-395-5409	Services try to best meet the needs of students and as the students grow so too does his/her ability to self-advocate.
SUNY-Empire	Sandy Grigsby Assistant for Student Services	716-244-3641	Flexible individually designed degrees, contract based learning, with a mentor for guided independent study.
SUNY-Geneseo	Paula Melendrez, Director of Special Programs	716-245-5492	Individual assistance and accommodations for students with disabilities.

SUPPORT PROGRAMS AVAILABLE TO STUDENTS
REGARDLESS OF WHICH SCHOOL THEY ATTEND

SCHOOL	NAME OF CONTACT	PHONE #	A NOTEWORTHY ASPECT
RIT Community Service Program LDC	Joanne Schorr	716-475-2281	Individual assessment of learning strengths and needs emphasizing learning style. Diagnostic teaching and instruction in content areas or to support post-secondary goals.
Learning Institute of The Norman Howard School	Dr. Ellen Arnold, Coordinator	716-244-8956	Small group educational experiences to bridge the skills the student has now to the demands/expectations of a postsecondary program.

The institutions in this list are actively involved in the Rochester Area College Consortium of Disability Advocates.

Compiled By: Dr. Ellen Arnold, 1993