

Rochester Area Teachers

The University at Buffalo's
Graduate School of Education is expanding our distance learning program to the Rochester RAITN Network.

If you are interested in earning a Masters Degree in General Education via new media technology and never coming to Buffalo
this degree program is for you!

Courses are being delivered via RAITN and the Internet allowing students to complete portions of coursework anytime, anywhere.
and the rest in their own community.

Visit our website to read about our program
and apply online today.

www.gse.buffalo.edu/edm

An additional charge of $100. will be required of each participant to cover ISDN line charges to connect you to the University of Buffalo.

After registering on line, send your check to:

Holly Sharp, RAITN Coordinator , Monroe # 1 BOCES 41 O'Connor Road, Fairport, NY 14450.

Classes begin August 28th, 2002.

Monroe # 1 BOCES will be one site. The second site has not yet been confirmed. Class size limited to 30 students.

If you have additional questions, e- mail me at holly_sharp@boces.monroe.edu