6. Do files get embarrassed when they're unzipped?
5. A printer consists of three main parts: the case, the jammed paper tray and the blinking red light.
4. Computers are not intelligent. They only think they are.
3. There are two major products to come out of Berkley: LSD and UNIX. We don't believe this to be a coincidence.
2. Error: Hit any user to continue.
1. If you can't beat your computer at chess, try kickboxing.

DEEPTHOUGHTS

by Jack Handy

-One thing kids like is to be tricked. For instance, I was going to take my little nephew to Disneyland, but instead I drove him to an old burned-out warehouse. "Oh, no," I said. "Disneyland burned down." He cried and cried, but I think that deep down, he thought it was a pretty good joke. I started to drive over to the real Disneyland, but it was getting pretty late.

-It takes a big man to cry, but it takes a bigger man to laugh at that man.

-A good way to threaten somebody is to light a stick of dynamite. Then you call the guy and hold the burning fuse up to the phone. "Hear that?" you say. "That's dynamite, baby."

Reasons Why You Don't Want to Leave Lyons

1. The courthouse is the biggest building in town. (And we have two).
2. You always have something to read, since the police beat is bigger than the phonebook.
3. You won't miss your family because the majority stays in Lyons.
4. Reading is optional; most of the signs are color-coded or have pictures.
5. You can leave your kids in Wal-mart if you need a babysitter.
6. Word spreads so fast that people know what's going to happen to someone before they know it.
7. You'll never be lonely while pumping gas; there's always a crowd there.
8. You don't have to go far to shop; there are about four-dollar stores and five drug stores.
9. You'll be satisfied to know that you'll always have an experienced teacher because they're here ten years before they pay off their college loan.
10. We are the chicken BBQ capital; there's one on every corner, every Saturday.
