Wednesday evening's Board of Education Meeting began with Public Participation where three members of the public spoke about the SAVE Plan. Announcements and Committee Reports began with Gretchen Craft citing the events she had attended recently – Breakfast of Champions, School to Work Breakfast, 5th and 6th Grade Music Concert, High School Music Concert, High School Athletic Banquet and the VOPRO Graduation. She thanked Glen Shaw and Mason Farms for supplying the flowers at some of these events. Deb Larson reported on the Breakfast of Champions, Elementary School Festival of the Arts, Grandparents Day and her visit to the High School. She also recognized Doug Skeet for his efforts as Middle School Principal this year. Bucky Jordan reported on the Park Committee Meeting, the Scholarship Meeting and Grandparents Day. Bill Herbert reported on the Transportation Department Safety Breakfast and the last Town Board Meeting.

Consent Agenda items were approved and included three substitute teacher appointments and one resignation of a bus monitor. CSE Case Summaries are approved as presented by Wanda Miller, CSE Chairperson. Under Old Business the Board began the discussion on the SAVE Plan, recently developed by the Safety Committee. The Board completed review of the Comprehensive Safety Plan and got part way through the Code of Conduct. They will complete the review at the next meeting and be ready to approve the Plan at the July 11th meeting.

Under New Business the Board approved the Senior Class Trip to Orlando, Florida for next year. Also approved was the new Reading Series for Grades 1-3. The resignation of John Svendsen was accepted with the Board offering best wishes on his new job. The Board approved the change in title (Computer Technician) and status (confidential) for Kevin O'Dell. The Board approved the following teacher appointments: Anthea Trombley, Special Ed. – High School; Lisa Marshall, Special Ed. Middle School; Wendy Feeney, Director of Curriculum and Instruction; Cathy Smith-Hogan, Special Ed. Middle School; and David Fitch, Math Middle School. Also approved were Extra Curricular appointments for 2001 – 2002 and staffing assignments needed to be done on an annual basis. In final action, the Board approved the salary adjustments for three confidential secretaries.

Upcoming meetings were reviewed, Public Participation was held and the Board recessed to Executive Session at 10:05 p.m. The meeting was adjourned at 10:32 p.m. with no further business being conducted.
