

MEMORANDUM

TO: Foreign Student Adviser or Person In Charge of Foreign Students

FROM: Hary Rakotondrazaka

DATE: February 12, 1998

SUBJECT: INTERNATIONAL STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

Enclosed is some useful information that could be of interest to your foreign students. Please kindly make photocopies and distribute to your students. You may also post a few copies on notice boards frequently visited by international students.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us at the address or phone number provided above. You may also email us to: unscusa@aol.com.

Please complete the form below so that we can place you in our priority mailing list. Schools on our priority list are the first to receive information when new programs that could benefit their students come out. You may also be invited to some of our diplomatic, educational and immigration functions.

Thank you for your kind cooperation.

SCHOLARSHIPS

If you are a foreign student currently enrolled in a post-secondary school, college or university, you may be able to qualify for a UNSC scholarship. To qualify, you must demonstrate financial need and/or academic excellence and must be an active member of UNSC. For more information or to request an application for UNSC membership, call, email, fax or write.

STUDENT LOANS

You may be able to qualify for an interest-free charitable loan if you show proof of your ability to repay the loan. To qualify you must demonstrate foreign student status, need, academic excellence and UNSC membership. For more information or to request an application for membership call, fax, email or write to the United Nations Education Council.

PRACTICAL TRAINING & INTERNSHIPS

If your goal is to get a job related to your academic major for the purpose of acquiring work experience then these opportunities are designed for you. The United Nations Student Council may be able to place you in a company or organization in the U.S. or abroad as an intern or practical trainee. These opportunities may be able to help you earn academic credits, income and work experience. They are designed to prepare you for post-graduation employment. To take advantage of these opportunities, you must have accumulated enough academic credits related to your major, show proof of foreign student status and UNSC membership. For more information or to request an application for UNSC membership, contact the United Nations Education Council.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES & SUMMER HIRE PROGRAM

If you really need a job to help finance your education, to provide for your living expenses or just to gain some work experience, these opportunities would be excellent for you. Some of these jobs will allow you to work on-campus; some will allow you to work from your home, while others will allow you to work off-campus. Most off-campus positions are available during the summer through the Summer Hire Program. Some jobs are offered directly by the United Nations Education Council, while others are offered by participating companies and organizations in the U.S. and abroad. If you would like to work full-time this summer, take advantage of the Summer Hire Program. To qualify you must be a member of the United Nations Student Council.
