Wayne Central School District

LETTER to the BOARD

September 24, 2004

*"Much I have learned from my teachers, more from my colleagues, but most from my students."
- - Talmud*

Greetings from Wayne Central School District. Below are some items of interest.

Newsletter:

- 1. Retirement letter: I have received a retirement letter from Sandy Woodard. The effective date is next July. She gave it to me early so we would have plenty of time to find a replacement for the position. I will include the letter in the personnel action for October. As soon as you accept the resignation, we will post the position within the district. Mrs. Scheik will be one of the applicants. There could be others though I know of no one else at this time. I will have a committee conduct the initial interviews and bring my recommendation to you by January 1st. The first task of the new director will be to do an audit of the operations and to make recommendations to me regarding improvements to the operation we should consider.
- 2. Wayne County Mail Picture: I wasn't sure if you had seen the pictures of our Board member. If you look carefully you can see her in both photographs.
- 3. Uniforms: Uniforms were discussed at a recent Board meeting. As promised I have enclosed some articles on the subject. Some of the first articles are very technical in their writing. The later ones are not quite so bad. Taken together I think you will find them interesting.
- 4. Article From Literacy Volunteers: This was an interesting piece about our students written by the director of Literacy Volunteers. As I have often said, people complain about today's youth. It's too bad about their kids but I think ours are pretty wonderful.
- 5. But they do mess up sometimes: Three of our soccer players were investigated by the police for knocking down mailboxes, throwing eggs and doing other mischievous things over the course of the last two months. The school investigated and concluded the allegations were true. The three players have been suspended from the team.

6. School Play: I met with the directors and producers to the school play. I am very pleased with the enthusiasm they showed. Right now they are considering Singin' in the Rain, Beauty and the Beast, and Annie Get Your Gun. Their preference is Beauty and the Beast if it is available. As a part of Model Schools we started a drama club this year. Currently we have over 40 members. I am very optimistic that we are on the right track with our program.

7. Ginna: Just a reminder that under the confidentiality agreement we can not yet say anything about the Ginna agreement. You may get questions from the public. You can say that we are close to an agreement but you haven't seen nor approved anything yet.
